Lynn S. Burman Bride Of Patrick W. Stewart

At 2 p.m., June 17 at St. Lawrence Martyr's Catholic Church, Miss Lynn Shirley Burman pledged her vows to Patrick Walter Stewart in a double ring ceremony. Father Ara officiated at the vow exchange.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Thorsten Burman, 315 Calle de Andalucia, Redondo. Mrs. Helen Stewart, 21710 Halldale Ave., Torrance, is the mother of the bridegroom.

The lovely bride chose a silk organza gown fashioned with a scoop neckline accented with applique. The full skirt ended in a chapel train. Her bouffant silk illusion veil was caught by a pearl crown. She carried a large orchid encircled with butterfly orchids and stephanotis when she was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Loretta Berg, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor; and the Misses Marian Daniels, Linda Rutledge, Jean Woodward, and Sandra Gratzner were bridesmaids. The attendants wore sea green silk organza dresses fashioned with scoop necklines and bell shaped skirts. Their shoes were dyed-to-match. They carried bouquets of yellow asters.

Dennis Stewart served his brother as best man. Ushers were Joe Rubeo, Russell Roberts, Randall Forstrom and Rodney Buck.

Flower girl was Karen Arthur dressed in a yellow silk organza dress. She carried a basket of rose petals.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burman chose a lilac satin sheath with beige accessories. Mrs. Stewart was attired in a yellow silk organza sheath with matching accessories.

Following the reception held at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Carmel and San Francisco.

The new Mrs. Stewart, a 1960 graduate of South High, attended El Camino College. Her husband, a Torrance High School graduate, is employed by Hawthorne Tile Co.

Fourth Anniversary
Dining recently at the Pen & Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Stephen C. Clark of Torrance, who gave a party in celebration of their fourth wedding anniversary. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Clark of Fullerton.
